

MAYOR JUAN MEDINA, OF JUAREZ, EXECUTED AT CHIHUAHUA, REPORT

OL. JUAN M. MEDINA, former mayor of Juarez, was executed Thursday in Chihuahua City, according to unconfirmed rumors in Juarez and El Paso. No confirmation or denial of the report has been made by Villa military or civil authorities. Medina was arrested last Monday night and taken to Chihuahua in a special train. It was officially announced at the time that he had gone "to confer with Gen. Avila," military governor of the state. Apparently reliable reports, however, were that he had been sent to the state capital for trial, on a charge of having conspired to deliver Juarez into the hands of Villa's enemies. Whether the charge was substantiated is not known.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY AT CELAYA

CELAYA, Mex., April 15.—One of the most complete and decisive battles of the entire revolution was won today by Gen. Obregon over Villa at Celaya. The fighting began day before yesterday and was severe and continuous until this afternoon, when the Villistas, who were outnumbered by Villa in person, were finally defeated and retired in disorder from the field.

Gen. Obregon reported by telegraph to Gen. Carranza that the fight had been of exceptional severity, while the defeat of the enemy was overwhelming. The remains of the Villista army and the total loss to Villa is estimated at 14,000 men. The dead and wounded were not counted. Thirty cannons were captured with many thousands of rifles, quantities of ammunition and supplies, as well as several railroad trains. The Villistas were driven off toward the north.

Other than the foregoing message and the statement of Gen. Obregon, no details of the happenings along the Celaya battle front have reached the border. Villa officials said Friday that even though the report was true Obregon could not have transmitted word to Carranza by telegraph, as he has no communication with Veracruz from Celaya.

INSTANT POSTUM

This delicious, pure food-drink contains no caffeine nor any other harmful ingredient. It is wholesome and invigorating, with a snappy flavor very like that of the Old Gov't Javahs.

And Instant Postum is so easy to make. Put a level teaspoonful in a cup and add hot water—that's all.

The convenience of Instant Postum is seen at a glance. Sold in 30c and 50c tins. Some prefer Postum Cereal—the original form, which must be well boiled, 15c and 25c packages.

Grocers sell both kinds, the flavor is equally delicious and the cost per cup is about the same.

THE MEXICAN CITY IS AGAIN HUNGRY

Duval West Informs Washington Conditions Are Again Very Serious.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—Duval West, special representative of the state department, today telegraphed secretary Bryan that conditions in Mexico City were again becoming serious, owing to the lack of foodstuffs and the interruption of communications. The department immediately notified Gen. Silliman at Veracruz to urge the Carranza authorities to expedite in clearing the railroad to the Mexican capital for the shipment of supplies.

Most of the affidavits are directed to the British, French and Spanish embassies. Examination at some of the embassies has disclosed the fact that in many cases the allegations have been made by persons who are known to be from Mexico City, consequently the diplomats have deemed the affidavits worthy of immediate transmittal to their home governments.

Some of the affidavits relating to the misuse of foreign women and robbing and beating of foreigners were made public recently at El Paso, Texas, upon the arrival at that place of the agent of the international committee.

FORMER SENATOR ALDRICH IS DEAD

Was Considered Greatest Parliamentarian the Senate Ever Knew.

New York, March 15.—Nelson W. Aldrich, for 20 years United States senator from Rhode Island and Republican leader whose name was stamped upon tariff and currency legislation of his party, died of an apoplectic stroke at his home, in Fifth Avenue here, today. He had been ill of indigestion since Thursday afternoon. Until then he had been in excellent health. He was in his 74th year. Senator Aldrich will be buried in Swan Point cemetery, Providence, R. I., Sunday afternoon.

Dr. John S. Thatcher, the family physician, had left Mr. Aldrich less than half an hour before he died. When Dr. Thatcher left, the patient appeared to be recovering from the slight attack of indigestion. Ten minutes after the physician left, Mr. Aldrich suddenly became unconscious and died within a few minutes.

Members of his immediate family were hurriedly summoned when he became unconscious and were at the bedside when he died. They include his wife, Miss Aldrich and Mrs. John B. Rockefeller Jr., his daughter, and Win-den S. Thatcher, the family physician, had left Mr. Aldrich less than half an hour before he died. When Dr. Thatcher left, the patient appeared to be recovering from the slight attack of indigestion. Ten minutes after the physician left, Mr. Aldrich suddenly became unconscious and died within a few minutes.

Mr. Aldrich was always ready to accept any kind of public business to advance legislative causes in which he was interested. The "banker" part of 1907 enabled him to give impetus to the passage of the monetary reforms. The first fruit of his labors in this direction was the Federal Reserve act, which was passed in 1913, put through the senate by Aldrich after an historic filibuster directed by Mr. La Follette, the Progressive Republican from Wisconsin, who was aided by Mr. Stous of Missouri, a Democrat.
